- Any electronic mail you receive from a director, employee or representative of Mulaudzi John Attorneys or any other person using a Mulaudzi John Attorneys e-mail address, including any attachments thereto (“the e-mail”), is subject to the Mulaudzi John Attorneys e-mail disclaimer (“disclaimer”) set out herein.
- The e-mail may contain information which is confidential, private, subject to legal privilege or otherwise protected by law. If you are not the stated addressee (or such person’s authorised representative) you must –
- Notify the sender of this fact immediately by return e-mail, fax or telephone and delete the e-mail from your system;
- Refrain from printing, copying, forwarding or otherwise disclosing any information contained in the e-mail or any part thereof; and
- Refrain from reading, storing, selling or otherwise using any information contained in the e-mail or any part thereof for any purpose including, without limitation, incorporating any information contained in the e-mail into any database or mailing list for whatever reason, including for purposes of spamming or marketing. Failure to do so may amount to the unlawful interception of a communication, the infringement of copyright and/or the infringement of the right to privacy, thus exposing you to criminal and/or civil liability.
- Notwithstanding any other provision of this disclaimer, neither Mulaudzi John Attorneys, the sender of the e-mail, or any other Mulaudzi John Attorneys representative will be liable for any loss, damage or expense of whatever nature (including without limitation that caused by the corruption or loss of data, damage to software programmes and interruption of business operations) resulting directly or indirectly from the transmission of the e-mail (including without limitation any malicious software code or viruses transmitted together with the e-mail, or any corruption to or loss of data contained in the e-mail).
- The views and opinions expressed in the e-mail do not necessarily reflect the views and opinions of Mulaudzi John Attorneys.
- In particular, no Mulaudzi John Attorneys representative or employee may send –
  - unsolicited commercial messages (“spam”);
  - messages that infringe any third party’s intellectual property rights (including copyright trademarks) or other rights (“infringing content”); or
  - messages containing content that is offensive, derogatory, racist, defamatory or otherwise unlawful (“offensive content”).
- If the e-mail constitutes spam, contains infringing content or offensive content, or was otherwise sent for purposes unrelated to the official business of Mulaudzi John Attorneys, that e-mail is contrary to Mulaudzi John Attorneys electronic communications policy and falls outside the scope of employment of the individual concerned and Mulaudzi John Attorneys will not be liable for any loss, damage or expense of whatever nature resulting therefrom.

- Mulaudzi John Attorneys reserves the right to read, monitor, access, block, delete, copy or otherwise intercept any e-mail transmitted to or from the Mulaudzi John Attorneys mail servers.
- Where the time or date on which the e-mail was transmitted is in issue, unless the content thereof expressly provides otherwise, Mulaudzi John Attorneys will be deemed to have –
- Sent the e-mail once reflected in our log files as “sent” on our mail servers; and
- Received, but not deemed to have read, an e-mail once reflected in our log files as “received” on our mail servers
- The disclaimer is governed by the laws of the Republic of South Africa and will be deemed to supersede any terms contained in any e-mail received by Mulaudzi John Attorneys, insofar as these conflict with this disclaimer.
